MEMORIAL EXERCISES

At Beechwood Park Yesterday Afternoon Largely Attended

A fine audience was in attendance at the annual Sunday Memorial services at Beechwood Park last afternoon the Auditorium being filled to its utmost seating capacity.

As the years go by the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are thinning out at a rapid rate and it will be only a few more years when the last one of the Civil War veterans will have passed over the border line and joined the vast silent host on the other shore. Mr. George N. Harding opesed the exercises with a few appropriate remarks. Then came the program as follows: Opening Song-"America." Prayer-Rev. M. A. Wallingford. Anthem-"The Flag in An Iron Star"- Sermon-Rev. E. R. Overley. Anthem-"Angels Guard Them." Closing Song-"When the Roll is Called Up Yonder-Quartet and Chorus.

Solo-Miss Florence Fist.

Benediction-Rev. E. R. Overley. Quartet-Soprano, Miss Dorothy Douglass; contralto, Miss Ora Douglas; tenor, Rev. E R. Overley; bass, J. H. Richardson.

Planist-Miss Martha Trapp. Ray, Overley delivered an admirable address that was given close attention, his audience being in sympathy and accord with his every esterance. The singing was of a high order and the exercises were appropriate and pleas-
